

CAMPHILL DIALOGUE SCOTLAND 2017

Wednesday 24th May – Aberdeen Town House, AB10 1AQ

6.00pm Registration at the Aberdeen Town House

7.00pm Civic Reception at Aberdeen Town House, Broad Street, Aberdeen

8.30pm Close of day

Thursday 25th May - Carnelian Hall, Camphill Estate, AB13 0AP

Theme for the day - The importance of our history in shaping who we are

10.00am Welcome

Panel contributions:

A historical context on Camphill's work today—Richard Steel

Shared living and meaningful work as a cornerstone of social therapy—Jake Vollrath

Collaborative working with external challenges—Onat Sanchez-Schwartz & Rachel Bowden

11.30am Break

Discussion on theme with panel members

1.15pm Lunch

2.15pm Visits to Kirkton House/other historical sites meaningful to Camphill/local communities

6.30pm Buffet at Norwood Hall

7.45pm Folk Music Evening at Norwood Hall

9.30pm Close of day

Friday 26th May - Paul Allen Auditorium, Phoenix Centre, Newton Dee Village,
AB15 9DX

Theme for the day - A sense for community

10.00am Welcome

Panel contributions:

Reaching out and inviting in – the challenges of a Camphill Community—Birte Miereczko

Rethinking of the traditional form of the Camphill community—Tim Woodward

Examining current trends in the funding—Claus Sproll

11.30am Break

Discussion on theme with panel members

1.15pm Lunch

2.30pm Workshops:

Camphill and Social Pedagogy—Vibeke Alfred

Growing your Community's Capacity to care for Older People —Jeannie Carlson

The Ecovillage Playing Cards - Designing our own pathways into the future. Common communities' toolbox—Kosha Joubert

Camphill's engagement with wider society—Maria Lyons

Anthroposophy and Camphill—Angelika Monteux

A dialogue in art—Amy Neville

Developing leadership skills for healthy social life—John Ralph

Building community – responding to change—Onat Sanchez-Schwartz & Bill Vogt

The financial realm: core values, board member training in new ways of looking at governance and financial models for sustainability—Claus Sproll

Building communities - co-housing—Tim Woodward

Embedding Social Pedagogy at Camphill Blair Drummond—Sandra Sabiston

What does it mean to be a Camphill Trustee? - A facilitated open conversation—Norma Hart

4.00pm Break

4.30pm Open space for spontaneous contributions

Karl König Institute/Camphill Botswana/Association of Camphill Communities/Opportunity to visit the Camphill Bookshop/Ways to Quality/Spanish initiative

6.15pm Buffet in Camphill Hall, Murtle Estate, AB15 9EP

8.00pm International Cultural Evening with contributions from around the world at Camphill Hall

9.30 pm Close of day

Saturday 27th May - Paul Allen Auditorium, Phoenix Centre, Newton Dee Village, AB15 9DX

Theme for the day - Looking Forward: Camphill as part of the future

10.00am Welcome

Panel contributions:

Capacity building and professional education – perspectives from the international movement—Jan Goeschel

Unleashing the power of community for a regenerative future—Kosha Joubert

Governance and leadership practices and structures to stimulate creative potential of the organisations and communities they serve—Robin Alfred

11.30am Break

Discussion on theme with panel members

1.15pm Lunch

2.30pm Plenary session

3.30pm Close of Dialogue

4.00pm Break

6.30 pm Dinner at Norwood Hall

8.00pm Ceilidh at Norwood Hall

10.30pm Close of day

Sunday 28th May – Optional outings and departures

(Programme subject to change)